DEFENDANT JESSE JONES' ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant, JESSE JONES, by his attorneys LITCHFIELD CAVO LLP, for his Answer to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint, filed June 3, 2008, states as follows:

Introduction

1. This action is brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 to redress the deprivation under color of law of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the United States Constitution.

ANSWER: Defendant admits the allegation that this action is brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, but denies that there was any deprivation under color of law of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the United States Constitution.

2. Specifically, the allegations that follow establish misuse of a police department's authority to promote an abhorrent homophobic agenda. While Mr. Brown is reluctant to make public the events described herein, he feels that he must speak out lest this gross misconduct fester within the Markham Police Department without exposure to public scrutiny.

ANSWER: Defendant denies that the allegations that follow establish a misuse of a police department's authority to promote an abhorrent homophobic agenda and that the City of Markham Police Department misused its authority to promote such an agenda. Defendant further denies that gross misconduct festers within the City of Markham Police Department, but is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 2.

Jurisdiction and Venue

3. This Court has jurisdiction of the action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367.

ANSWER: Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 3.

4. Venue is proper as Plaintiff resides in this judicial district and Defendant City of Markham is a municipal corporation located here. Further, the events giving rise to the claims asserted here all occurred within this district.

ANSWER: Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 4.

Background

5. Plaintiff Frankie Brown, 47-years-old, is a long-time resident of Markham, Illinois.

ANSWER: Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 5.

6. On or about May 31, 2007, several plain-clothed Defendant Officers forced their way into Mr. Brown's house without knocking or announcing their office prior to entering.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that on May 30, 2007, several plain-clothed Defendant Officers entered Plaintiff's home. Defendant denies all remaining allegations of paragraph 6.

7. At the time the officers forced their way into his home, Mr. Brown was in the bathroom where he was surprised by the Defendant Officers. Mr. Brown was terrified because the Defendants were pointing guns at him and because he had no idea they were police officers.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that when Defendant Officers entered into Plaintiff's home, Plaintiff was in the bathroom and that Defendant Officers pointed guns at him, but Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of paragraph 7.

8. Mr. Brown was forced to lie on his stomach with assault rifles pointed at his head. The Defendant Officers then handcuffed him, dragged him into an adjacent room, and slammed him into a chair. While the officers searched Mr. Brown's house, additional uniformed Defendant Officers arrived and entered the premises.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that Plaintiff was forced to lie on his stomach and was handcuffed and that additional uniformed Defendant Officers entered the premises while Plaintiff's house was being searched. Defendant denies all remaining allegations of paragraph 8.

9. The Defendant Officers, including but not limited to Defendant Officers Harris and Walker, began making numerous offensive and derogatory statements regarding Mr. Brown's sexual orientation. Throughout the ordeal, the Defendant Officers continued to make derogatory statements, including but not limited to words to the effect of: "I'll sleep better tonight knowing there is one less fag on the street"; "He is one of those dick-in-the-booty boys"; "We shouldn't be touching him, he takes it in the ass and sucks dick"; and "What does a fag like you need with a lawyer."

ANSWER: Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 9.

10. The Defendant Officers subsequently moved Mr. Brown, who was still handcuffed and seated, to the doorway of his open front door while they conducted a further search of the house.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that Plaintiff was moved to the doorway of his open front door while Defendant Officers conducted a further search of his house. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 10.

11. The Defendant Officers found a photograph of two of Plaintiff's male relatives and a friend, as well as a homosexual pornographic video, which had been concealed inside Mr. Brown's house. The Defendant Officers brought the photo and the video outside to show Mr. Brown's neighbors and the other police officers who were gathered around Mr. Brown's house. The Defendant Officers made degrading comments about Mr. Brown supposedly having sexual relations with the people in the photograph.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that photographs and homosexual pornographic videos were found in Plaintiff's home, but is without knowledge or information sufficient to form as belief as to whether those photographs depicted two of Plaintiff's male relatives and a friend. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 11.

12. Mr. Brown, who was humiliated and embarrassed by the Defendant Officers' actions, attempted to move the chair to which he was shackled further inside the house so he would not have to face his neighbors. This infuriated the Defendant Officers, who dragged Mr. Brown to the front of his house. The Defendants then placed the picture and the pornographic movie on a ledge next to Mr. Brown so that he and the items were on display for everyone gathered outside. In an effort to further humiliate Mr. Brown, the Defendant Officers then aimed a police spotlight directly at Mr. Brown, so that Mr. Brown, the picture, and the pornographic video would be illuminated for the neighborhood to see.

ANSWER: Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 12.

13. This was not a brief episode of humiliation. Mr. Brown spent well over an hour sitting handcuffed in front of his house spotlighted next to the video and the picture while the Defendant Officers continued to search his house.

ANSWER: Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 13.

14. After some time, Mr. Brown's nephew, who lives with Mr. Brown and is his legal ward, arrived at the home. The Defendant Officers immediately began harassing the young man with extremely offensive and derogatory language insinuating that he was involved in sexual activity with his uncle. Mr. Brown's nephew was so threatened by the Defendant Officers and what they were doing to his uncle that he was forced to leave.

ANSWER: Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth that Plaintiff's nephew, who lives with Mr. Brown, and is his legal ward, arrived at the home. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 14.

15. The Defendant Officers then informed Mr. Brown's neighbors that Mr. Brown was HIV positive, a fact that Mr. Brown had not previously shared with anyone, and which was only discovered by the Defendant Officers by examining the medications in his medicine cabinet.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that Plaintiff's HIV status was discovered by examining the medications in Plaintiff's medicine cabinet. Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth that Plaintiff had not previously shared his HIV status with others. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 15.

16. Several hours after the Defendant Officers first entered Mr. Brown's home, they transported him, still handcuffed, to the Markham Police Station without any justification. Mr. Brown was arrested despite the fact that he had committed no crime and the officers found absolutely nothing illegal during their search. In addition, the Defendant Officers took approximately $150 from Mr. Brown without authorization or explanation. That money has never been returned to him.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that $150.00 was seized from Plaintiff's home during the search and has not been returned and that Plaintiff was arrested and transported, still handcuffed, to the Markham Police Station. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 16.

17. The Defendant Officers unlawfully held Mr. Brown at the police station until the following evening. The Defendant Officers refused to let Mr. Brown leave unless he signed an agreement stating that he would cooperate with the Markham Police Department by informing them about any illegal activity in his neighborhood. The Defendant Officers then released Mr. Brown without charging him with a crime.

ANSWER: Defendant admits that Plaintiff was held overnight at the police station and released without being charged with a crime due to his agreement to act as a confidential informant. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of paragraph 17.

- f. Municipal policy-makers are aware of, and condone and facilitate by their inaction, a "code of silence" in the Markham Police Department, by which officers fail to report misconduct committed by other officers, such as the misconduct at issue in this case; and
- g. The City of Markham has failed to act to remedy the patterns of abuse describe in the preceding sub-paragraphs, despite actual knowledge of the same, thereby causing the types of injuries alleged here.
